Ministry Purpose:

Equipping women to know God more and live authentically.

Verse:

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” II Timothy 3:16-17 (NIV)

Experience:

Teaching the Word since 1983 and speaking since 1997. Author of Bible study workbooks, devotionals, fiction and nonfiction books, poems, songs, and dramas. Samples of her work can be found on her website: www.kimberlykirk.com. References available upon request.

Fee:

Kimberly doesn't have a set fee. All she asks is that her expenses be covered (travel, food, retreat/event registration, etc.). Anything the Lord puts on your heart to give as an honorarium will be fine. Since she rarely travels alone, Kimberly also requests that her friend's expenses be covered (they room together).

Types of Events:

Retreats, conferences, seminars, Bible studies, outreaches, special events, etc. Practically anywhere a speaker or teacher is needed.

Things you'll need to do:

Provide microphone, podium, and PowerPoint projector with cable.
Copy and collate emailed handouts (for retreats, conferences and seminars).
A few water bottles in her room for multi-day events are appreciated.

Speaking Topics:

Kimberly loves to dig into the Scriptures and write new messages that fit with the theme of your event. Below are some topics and texts she has shared (see below). She has also done seasonal messages (Easter, Christmas, Mother's Day, etc.). For special and outreach events, she has spoken on topics of fear, worry, walking by faith, leaving a legacy, keeping in step with the Spirit and many others. Samples of her teaching can be found on her website: www.kimberlykirk.com.
